Values-based Policy: Respect for Community

General Description

Policy Summary:
In order to create a University environment in which civility, decency, and respect are honored, Trinity University has established standards of behavior.

Purpose:
The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to students on what is considered unacceptable behavior.

Scope:
This policy applies to all current students.

Exceptions:
There are no exceptions.

Policy Content

Respect for Community

Students are expected to respect the standards that form the foundation of a civil community through personal integrity. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Theft
2. Possession of stolen or illegal property
3. Lying
4. Cheating
5. Falsification of records
6. Disruption
7. Disorderly conduct
8. Indecency
9. Possession/ownership or use of a weapon or an item intended to be used as a weapon
10. Unauthorized entry into buildings or spaces.
11. Failure to identify one’s self, evasion of University officials, failure to respond to a reasonable request of a University official, harassment and/or belittling of staff performing their duties.

Requirements

Approvals:
VP for Student Life