Policy Content

Trinity University's campus security program is an ongoing process that includes the development and enforcement of regulations, procedures and practices to provide a reasonable level of security for property, information and for the personal safety of employees, students and visitors.

Administrative and supervisory personnel are responsible for the incorporation of security principles and procedures in their respective areas of operation.

Each member of the faculty, staff and student body is responsible for carrying out campus regulations, procedures and practices and shall comply with federal, state and local laws related to security matters while on the campus or in the course of representing or conducting University activities.

In compliance with the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990, Trinity University annually publishes a campus security report, which includes security policies and campus crime statistics. The current report is available from the Office of the Director of University Police, Trinity University.

Trinity University views the safety and welfare of employees, students and visitors as integral to carrying out the educational mission of the institution. The University will comply with federal, state and local safety regulations and will develop documented comprehensive plans, regulations, procedures and programs to ensure the continuing safety of the University community.

Administrative and supervisory personnel are responsible for incorporating safety principles and procedures into their employee orientation programs. Each member of the faculty, staff and student body is responsible for taking all appropriate measures to prevent accidents.
