Summary

The University has established the following opening and closing times for university buildings as indicated below. Only faculty and staff will be permitted in these buildings after the prescribed closing times. All other persons must leave the building unless accompanied by a Trinity faculty or staff member or unless an approved exception is on file with the Trinity University Police Department. Such exceptions should be forwarded to the Tiger Card Office, who in turn, will notify Trinity University Police Department. Exceptions will be granted only if two or more persons remain in the facility (classroom/laboratory) at all times. Student organizations' meetings and functions will be permitted access through the Student Involvement reservations system. For buildings/rooms with keyed access, a request for access must be forwarded by the department to Trinity University Police Department.

The following buildings will open and close, during the school year as follows:

Center for Science and innovation (CSI), Dicke/Smith Building, Halsell Administrative Studies Center, Laurie Auditorium (*Yellow Level Only), Marrs McLean Hall, Richardson Communication Center, Ruth Taylor Theatre
